Human-Centered Computing

1. CHI (https://chi2017.acm.org/) is the top Human-Computer Interaction conference. Visit the CHI'17 website. Pick one of the technical papers you are interested in, and write a 2-page review.

2. On a separate page, list associated events you would have liked to attend, such as workshops, tutorials, and social events.

Create a pdf document for your work, and hand in your assignment by typing on a CADE machine:
