Overview
You will write an e-mail proposal describing what work you would do as the logical next step for the clinic project described by your team's poster. Although your team will produce only one poster, every member of the team must write his or her own e-mail proposal.

Content
The proposal MUST include the following paragraphs:

1. Greeting—just plain “Dr. Cotter:” (with a colon after the name)
2. Introduction—remind recipient why you are writing (1-2 sentences)
3. Body—Summarize the project you propose to do (3-5 sentences)
4. Conclusion—Sign off politely, perhaps by asking recipient to contact you if he or she has further questions (1-2 sentences)
5. Your name—type your full name at the bottom, in case the recipient’s server does not provide it at the top
